vs.) ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#69), filed on October 29, 2014. Plaintiff has submitted a proposed discovery plan and scheduling order, but represents that Defendants object to discovery commencing while their motions to dismiss are pending. Defendants are admonished that the filing of a motion to dismiss does not automatically result in a stay of discovery or the requirement to file a discovery plan and scheduling order. If Defendants desire a stay of discovery, then they must file a motion for stay, or a stipulation setting forth the justification for entry of a stay order. Because Defendants' motion to dismiss challenges personal jurisdiction over the Defendants in this district, however, it is the type of motion for which a stay of discovery may be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendants shall file an appropriate motion to stay discovery on or before November 7, 2014, or shall file a proposed discovery plan and scheduling order by the same date.

DATED this 30th day of October, 2014.
